MARCH'S ACCUSER WANTS A GUN.

Bays His Life Has Been Threatened Because

He Hunts the Padrones. Modesto Maccari, the Italian sleuth employed by the Bureau of Licenses to get evidence against the padrones who are running employment agencies in violation of the law, has applied to Police Commissioner McAdoo for a permit to carry a revolver. He says that his life has been threatened and that he fears he will be assassinated. Maccari, who was formerly in the police department in Italy, and his partner, Louis Righetti, secured the evidence on which warrants for ten or a dozen padrones have been issued, among them James E. March, the Republican leader of the Sixth Assembly district. The charge against March was dropped when he promised to take out a license and conform to the law. This was after he had threatened to have the law repealed through the influ-ence of his friend Odell.

ence of his friend Odell.

It was the custom of the two sleuths to work together. One would apply for a job on the New York Central or Erie railroad, and the other would stand by and witness the payment of the fee demanded. This was necessary because no receipt was ever given by a padrone. On April 10 Eighetti disappeared, and the license department has been unable to find any trace of him since. He lived in Brooklyn, but he has not been seen in any of his usual haunts since that date. At one place it was said that he was working on a farm in Westchester county. The people there said they had never heard of him. If he does not turn up, the cases against several of the padrones are likely to fall through in the Court of Special Sessions, as the license department was depending on his evidence to secure convictions.

In the meantime the life of Maccari has his evidence to secure convictions.

In the meantime the life of Maccari has been anything but happy or pleasant. He declares that he is threatened with all kinds of dire penalties if he does not quit spying on the padrones. He says that his life was even threatened in the police court. His application for a permit to carry a revolver has been indersed by Commissioner Keating.

$50 Lost in St. Thomas's Still Missing. Augustine N. Lawrence, a broker of 50 Broadway, who lives in the Nevada apartments, lost a roll of bills containing about $50 in St. Thomas's Church on Sunday. He thinks that the roll just naturally slipped out of his shallow side trousers pocket when he sat down, but he thinks it queer that the roll has not been returned as he advertised in yesterday no nings' papers, giving a detailed and accurate description of it. He seemed unwilling yesterday to believe that the person who found it would prefer the fifty to a clear conscience.

DAUGHTERS IN EXILE. Indiana Women Entertain the Heads of

Other State Societies. At a meeting of the Daughters of Indiana n New York city in the Hotel Astor yesterday afternoon presidents of five newly organized State societies of "daughters" brought greetings from their members.

When Mis. Alice Fischer Harcourt, who was to have told "Some of My Experiences Since Leaving Indiana," addressed the chair she said: "I want to make my apologies for not telling you about my experiences this afternoon, but I have a lame foot. I'm wearing an old slipper about three times too large and I can't stand long. Since I hurt my foot by falling

THE WANAMAKER STORE ANNOUNCES The Greatest Sale USED PIANOS

Ever Presented to the Public.

A BOUT a hundred and seventy-five instruments—Pianos and Angelus Piano Players—have accumulated in our warerooms, since our last offering in January. All have come to us in the natural course of the regular transactions of this great piano business.

Most of the instruments have been taken in exchange, from purchasers of our new pianos. Many other splendid offerings are pianos that have been out on rental, and which are now marked at concessions that thrifty people will be glad to profit by-for the instruments cannot be told from absolutely new pianos. In this group there are some fine Chickering, Vose and Kurtzmann pianos that scarcely show a mark of use. Yet there is a fine sum to be saved on each. The Sale will occupy special space all over the Fifth Floor. It is the largest and finest collection of Pianos ever offered here or elsewhere under-price.

NOT ONLY ARE SAVINGS GREAT BUT TERMS ARE AS EASY AS DESIRED

The remarkable list follows. Come early, for the selling is always rapid on these extraor. dinary occasions.
